Lambley Nature 2025: July Wildlife Tips

In this very dry Spring it is essential to give water to new plants and shrubs in the evenings or early mornings. Soak roots well at regular intervals. If you have acid loving plants like blueberries you can leave tap water for 48 hrs and the harmful chemicals will mostly go. This trick can also be done if your pond is losing water.

Deadhead plants so that more flowers appear and provide nectar. At the end of summer stop dead heading, so that the seeds can be eaten by birds and mammals over autumn and winter. You could also collect seeds and store them in a cool, dry place for use next spring.

Think of creating an area where the grass will grow longer or better still create a small wildflower meadow area, many butterflies lay their eggs in tall grasses – you can also buy locally plug plants from Naturescape in Nottinghamshire.

Please also remember to leave water out in a shallow bird bath. Change it daily and clean the bath each week, to avoid midge and mosquitos laying eggs in it.

Leave unmown areas, or just keep a pathway mown through your meadow. The insects should flourish! Leave the blades higher if you feel the need for the lawn- this reducing the grasses burning. Try not to cut hedges because there will still be birds nesting in them this month and into early August. Load the merlin bird application on your phone to see the variety of birdlife you have in your garden and those passing overhead.

Purchase a bat detector – we are entering prime bat activity months when the weather cools down – bats don't like intense heat and stop flying. This could become our hottest Summer on record in total contrast to 2024.

You may have noticed that there are very few pollinators around your plants, this Year once again has been bad news for all insects, bees and moths. The latest Government research is showing forever chemicals in our water courses and what we are drinking, this is another problem for not us but our wildlife. As insect numbers are so low, birds will be grateful if you feed them with mealworms (live ones preferably) or if dried soak these well prior to feeding.

Think about installing a swift box on your property under the eaves they are looking for nest sites in our village – welcome your home to these aerial acrobats, rather than excluding them - they can be obtained from peak boxes at a reasonable price in Derbyshire. Swifts will take midges, wasps and hornets on the wing so are true garden friendly birds.

Finally as always, enjoy your garden! See how many different plants, insects, bugs, birds and mammals your space can support. What about taking part in the Big Butterfly Count, run by Butterfly Conservation? Visit their website for more info.

INTRODUCTION TO CLLR JODY STOLL

My name is Jody Stoll, and I've just been elected as your County Councillor for the Calverton Division, which includes Lambley, Woodborough, Calverton and parts of Gedling.

I was born and raised in Nottinghamshire in a mining community. My grandparents ran pubs, my dad was an engineer, and my mum was a cook. I left school at 16 and went straight into factory work. I've worked as a cleaner, a security guard, and taught myself computers in my late teens, early twenties. I've spent the last 27 years working in IT. One of my sons is currently serving in the British Army, and the other is due to begin basic training, so by the time you read this, he may well have joined him.

I'm just a working person like most of you. I've never forgotten where I came from, and I never will.

I want to start by thanking everyone who's taken the time to get in touch with me. The messages of support have meant a lot. I also want to thank Lambley Parish Council for the warm welcome. They care deeply about this village, and I look forward to building a strong relationship with them.

Lambley is a beautiful village, full of character and community spirit. It deserves to be looked after properly, and I'll do everything I can to make sure it gets the attention it needs.

Let me be clear. I'm not just here for the people who voted Reform UK. I'm here for all residents in Lambley. Whether you voted for me or not, I work for you. That's how it should be.

I know people have lost trust in politics. They feel ignored, lied to, taken for granted. And I get it, because I've felt it too. That's why I stood. I'd had enough of screaming at the TV. When you've worked all your life, paid your way, followed the rules, and still feel like the country is slipping away, you've got two choices. Sit back or step up. I chose to step up.

And I honestly believe there's a sense now. A real feeling that change is possible. People are starting to believe again. There's hope, and I take that seriously.

People have put their trust in me, and I won't waste it. We won't fix things overnight. The country didn't get into this mess only recently. It's been going wrong for decades. But if we're honest, practical, and not afraid to say what needs saying, we can start to put it right.

To me, politics should be simple. Be straight with people. Spend their money wisely. Fix what's broken. And remember, councils don't have their own money.

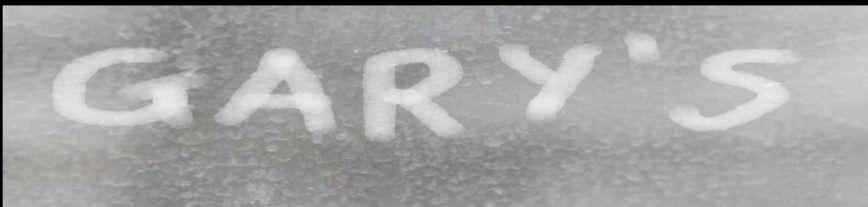

Every penny spent belongs to you. It should go into roads, care, and proper front-line services, not vanity projects or trendy political causes. So that's what I'll be doing. I'll work hard, speak plainly, and always be honest with you. That's my promise.

If you want to get in touch, whether it's to raise something or just say hello, you can message me on my Facebook Page or email me at:

In June, we had the first of our summer outings to the Nottingham City Museums & Galleries off-site storage facility in Bobbers Mill. This was a fascinating sneak peek behind the scenes, and we toured three units containing industrial history, social history and archaeology collections, seeing everything from a Nottingham built Swift & Wass curtain lace machine, to material from Raleigh, Cropper, Players and everyday items such as radios, telephones, bricks and mangles! A very entertaining glimpse into Nottingham's past led by Ann Inscker who was extremely knowledgeable about everything.

Our next event is the final summer outing in August with a visit to Shardlow and its Heritage Centre for a fascinating insight into this 18th century canal trans-shipment port. We will be guided around the village to see many of the older buildings and hear all about the history.

New members and guests are always welcome.

Snippets from the LHS Archives

This is the next in a series of photographs and articles collected by the LHS featuring Lambley in the past. We have many photographs in our collection, but if you have any recollections of people, places or events from Lambley we would love to see them. We can scan and return any photos and as much information as possible is always useful.

Unfortunately, the photograph in last month's magazine was inadvertently cropped during publication, so it is being shown again in full. This photo shows the Lambley cricket team in 1975 and thanks to Phil Greaves for naming the players and for his reminiscences.

"Home matches were played at the School Field, where a level cricket square had been laid towards the far end. The pavilion stood in the bottom corner near to the current bonfire site. Phil first played for Lambley CC in late summer 1968, shortly after moving into the village with wife Linda. At that time the team mainly comprised village men in their late-30s and 40s, who retired from the game during the next 4-5 years. Of those in the picture only Selby, Miller, Greaves and the Nicholson brothers were resident in Lambley. Other village-resident players on the books at the time were David Little, Brian Holland, and teenagers Mark Wortley and John Isbell. We had to rely on friends and work colleagues from outside Lambley to keep the Club going. It had become increasingly difficult to raise a team and we reluctantly decided to call it a day at the end of the 1976 season."

UPDATE FROM NOTTINGHAMSHIRE POLICE

It is a pleasure to be able to continue to contribute towards the Lambley Life Magazine and provide you an update on Lambley and the surrounding areas. Unfortunately, speeding remains a concern and is a local priority for us. Gedling Safer Neighbourhoods Team (SNT) continue to conduct monthly speeding operations in various areas across the divisional area. We aim to be intelligence led and officers will identify suitable locations based on intelligence reports from the public and whilst liaising with local Councillors.

We continue to support the Community Safety Watch (CSW) scheme and Cllr Gregory has a strong contingent of volunteers which also supports our police enforcement initiatives. PCSO Trevor Parkinson (trevor.parkinson@notts.police.uk) has recently delivered a training session at Richard Heron Centre for the Community Road Safety (CRS) alongside Cllr Andrew Ellwood. As a result, 3 new members of the public volunteered their services which is fantastic.

The team have held a number of monthly Beat surgeries in the last quarterly period across the area and we continue to listen to your issues and concerns. Gedling SNT cover Lambley, Burton Joyce and Stoke Bardolph and we aim to have one Beat Surgery in each of the main areas. We will continue to run Beat Surgery once a month in all three areas on a revolving basis. This is to ensure we the public have fair access to the police and equally importantly, we understand the different concerns our communities face. I am pleased to report the following Beat Surgeries will take place over the next three months:-

- Burton Joyce Surgery – Wednesday 23rd July 2025 at 1400 hrs at Burton Joyce Library, Burton Joyce, Nottinghamshire
- Lambley Beat Surgery – Monday 18th August 2025 at 1400 hrs at Lambley Primary School, Catfoot Lane, Lambley, Nottinghamshire
- Stoke Bardolph Surgery – Tuesday 23rd September 2025 at 1400 hrs at Stoke Bardolph Community Centre, Stoke Lane, Stoke Bardolph, Nottinghamshire

There are no particular crime patterns or trends that are of a concern. If you see something concerning, please report to 101 in a non emergency, or 999 if a crime is taking place.

I would continue to encourage residents to sign up to the Notts Alerts scheme (www.nottsalerts.co.uk). We are committed to better understanding local concerns, and we value the two way communication. It's also a great opportunity to have your say on policing where you live.

As always if you would you like to contact the local NPT you can contact PCSO Parkinson on the above email address or PC 2358 Mark Szeremeta on Mark.Szerameta@notts.police.uk part of your local Safer Neighbourhood Policing Team.

Appeal

Hi there.....long shot I know....but my boy's basketball team are desperately looking for sponsorship as they now progress into the national basketball league (NBL). On 13th June they won their local league and became trophy winners!

Billy is a born and bred Lambley lad and has played for the Cobras for two years now. British basketball is massively underfunded and overlooked when it comes to investment, hence this appeal!

If there are any businesses, be it large or small, that think they could help, please get in touch!

Many thanks for your time.

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

Making public transport safer in Nottinghamshire.

Partners are joining forces to make public transport even safer as part of a pioneering new pilot scheme in Nottinghamshire.

Operation Safenet will see closer collaboration and information sharing between police and Nottingham's tram operator to prevent crime, analyse trends and come up with solutions that keep passengers safe on and around the 20-mile tram network.

Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) Gary Godden is bringing together Nottinghamshire Police and Nottingham Express Transit (NET) for the collaborative project, as part of his vision to keep people safe, especially women and girls.

Passengers will also benefit from enhanced support, monitoring and evidence gathering from dozens of existing 'help points' at tram stops and CCTV cameras across the tram system.

If successful, the 12-month pilot scheme could be extended or rolled out to other forms of public transport across Nottinghamshire.

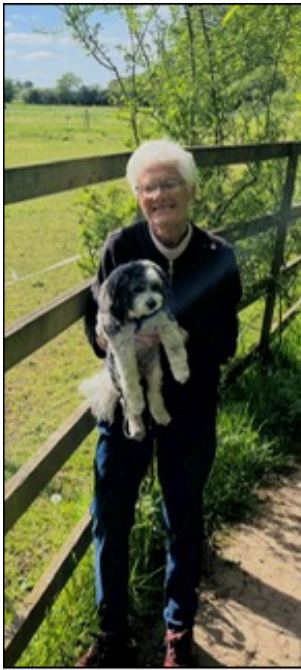

PCC Godden said: "Nottingham is a great city and Operation Safenet is about making it even safer by bringing partners together to work more closely behind the scenes on things like evidence gathering, information sharing and crime prevention.

"It includes employing a researcher to analyse crime and antisocial behaviour patterns. This then allows existing front-line resources, such as officers from Neighbourhood Policing Teams, to take targeted and data-driven action to solve local problems and nip any issues in the bud.

"Not only will this benefit the people of Nottinghamshire, it is also going to support tram staff to stay safe as they carry out their jobs.

"We know that public transport is vital to the way people live their lives, particularly with the cost of living making personal travel more expensive. I want people to be safe in the knowledge that when they come to Nottingham for a night out, to work, or to visit, they will be safe on our public transport network."

The scheme will complement the ongoing work across the city and county to create safe spaces and ensure that someone in need of a temporary sanctuary can find a location near to them where they can access help.

Anne Mary Smith

25/02/1939 - 14/06/2025

Mum was a very proud Lancashire lady Born and bred in Burnley, raising their children Elizabeth and Richard together with her late loving husband John.

John's profession took them to the United States Of America in 1985 where they enjoyed a full and exciting life travelling the world, proud to have visited virtually every state in America.

Once John had finished work they moved to a retirement complex in Florida, where Anne was an avid member of the tennis club, playing every morning. This is where cruising also became a big part of their lives. The Caribbean experience was their favourite especially sampling all the local rum cocktails.

As a family all the Grandchildren, Katie, Adam Mathew and Eleanor enjoyed many trips to spend quality time with Grannie and Grandpa especially their Disney days.

Anne took great pride in all her grandchildren's achievements and the pathways they have chosen.

Sadly in 2009 Anne lost her beloved husband John and in 2013 decided to return to the UK choosing Lambley to lay down her roots. She enjoyed village life and the friendliness of the local community including attending the WI, a couple of ladies luncheon groups, an occasional pub quiz and the local summer fetes.

A year after relocating Maggie her Cavapoo soulmate arrived and made her life complete again.

Many of you will have seen Anne trotting at speed as regular as clockwork on her daily walks around the village and Gedling Country Park.

Anne was so fortunate to have had amazing neighbours, not only welcoming Anne into their family lives, but also caring for her wellbeing. This was greatly appreciated by Anne and her children.

In the last 3 years Anne was overjoyed to become a great grannie to three beautiful children, Leo, Max and Ferne and had great pleasure in all the regular photographs, updates and visits.

After a very short illness Anne sadly passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family.

Maggie remains in the family enjoying life to the full.

In June Eva and Jean came to talk to us about bobbin lace making and its regional variations. They showed us examples of different laces and patterns on Vellum and the different lace making equipment used to make them.

Nottingham's history with lace stretches back centuries from a small settlement to a globally recognised centre for lace production and the Lace Market, the oldest part of Nottingham, became a hub for the industry in the 19th century particularly with the advent of mechanised lace making. While lace production has declined from its peak Nottingham's legacy as a lace making centre remains significant.

It was interesting to get an insight into the hardships associated with the lace industry with children as young as 5 or 6 years old expected to sit all day making lace and the harshness of the buyers if there were any mistakes or marks on the goods.

The ladies all then had the opportunity to try their hand at a bit of lace making which was enjoyed by everyone.

Our next meeting is Monday 14th July with social time starting at 7 and the meeting at 7.30pm and our speaker is from Moo Haven a local horse rescue centre and members and visitors are encouraged to bring a few carrots as treats for the centre to take back to their residents!

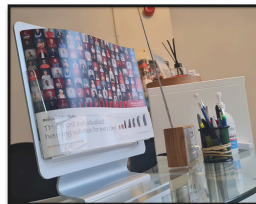

We are a friendly group of women who would love to welcome new members with new ideas.

Visitors are also always welcome so please come along and meet us. For further information/enquiries contact Michelle 07943334616, email nightingale633@gmail.com

LAMBLEY PARISH COUNCIL – WHAT IS HAPPENING AT THE MOMENT

The Council met for its June meeting on Monday 16th June. We had representatives of the Reed Pond Group to update us on their plans and the Council thanked them for their hard work. They really have made a tremendous difference to the site. If you have not visited it recently, please do try to do so; you will be amazed.

As is usual, we also had our local District and County Councillors in attendance. It is a great opportunity for them to tell us what is happening at district and county level and for us to express any concerns we have. Sometimes they are able to respond to our concerns straight away but if not, they direct our concerns to the appropriate officers of the Councils and respond at the next meeting. If you have any concerns with respect to either the District Council, GBC, or the County Council, NCC, you can pass them on through us or go direct the Helen Greensmith, our District Councillor or Jody Stoll, our County Councillor. Matters concerning the County Council can also be sent directly to them using the MyNotts app on mobile devices.

You may have spotted the speed gun out on Green Lane this last month. A number of motorists were clocked exceeding the speed limit and their details have been passed on to the police. We hope to be out again during July.

By the time you read this, Park Lane should be open again. Keep your fingers crossed!

The heating monitoring system for the Village Hall is now active and we are hoping that a fair and equitable split of the heating bills can be made between the Parish and the School. This should be the first step in writing the new Joint Use Agreement and we are looking forward to completing it.

You may have noticed that the pavements at the side of the roads in the Parish are starting to look wider. Thanks to Katja Watmore and her group of volunteers who are working their way around the Parish, trimming back the verges and generally tidying up. They are doing a great job and are always looking for more volunteers.

Our next meeting on 21st July is the last of the summer. We don't meet in August. If you have any urgent business with us, please contact Ewa, our clerk, before the 14th July so it can be included in our agenda.

Lawrence Milbourn,
Chairman, Lambley Parish Council.

LAMBLEY PATH RETRIEVERS

The latest project is to clear/widen the path back to where it should be on the pavement from Dark Hollow to Topwood Farm. This is quite a task but slowly but surely the girls are making progress although this has slowed at the moment due to holidays and the warm weather. We try to go out on alternate Tuesday mornings weather permitting. If you would like to help please contact Lambley Life to be added to the Group.

CREME CARAMEL

Ingredients

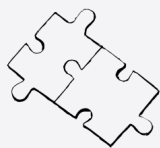

75 g (3 oz) granulated sugar
3 tablespoons water
3 eggs
25 g (1 oz) caster sugar
450 ml (3/4 pint) milk
½ teaspoon vanilla essence

Apologies for the picture - I nearly forgot to take one before it was gone!

Put the granulated sugar and water in a pan. Heat gently, stirring, until dissolved, then cook to a rich caramel without stirring - do not burn! Carefully add 1 teaspoon of boiling water and pour into a 90 ml (1½ pint souffle dish or mould).

Beat the eggs and caster sugar together. Heat the milk almost to boiling point and add to the eggs with the vanilla essence. Mix well. Strain into the souffle dish and place in a roasting pain containing 2.5 cvm (1 inch) water. Bake in a preheated cool oven (140 degreec C (275F Gas 1) for 1½ hours until set. Cool then turn out into a serving dish. (You can also make individual puds in ramekins).

Jobs in the garden for July

1. Deadhead bedding plants and repeat flowering perennials to ensure continuous flowering.
2. Water tubs and new plants if dry - don't forget to use grey water collected in the house.
3. Check clematis for signs of clematis wilt.
4. Pick courgettes before they become marrows!
5. Start picking tomatoes as they ripen, continue to remove side shoots and feed and water the plants.
6. Clear algae and blanket weed from ponds and keep them topped up.
7. Deadhead, feed and water for a longlasting show
8. Don't worry if your lawn goes brown as it will soon bounce back when we have rain
9. Harvest apricots, peaches and nectarines if you have them.
10. Cut back faded perennials and keep the borders tidy.

Does your double glazing have condensation? Why change your windows when you can just change the glass for a fraction of the cost? We supply and fit double glazed units. 24 hour emergency boarding up service. Supply and fit UPVC windows, doors and soffits. Free quotes provided on request.
